A perfect summer day is when the sun is shining, the breeze is blowing, the birds are singing, and the lawn mower is broken...

Oh-Can-a-ha-ha

- Why is maple syrup always so sad?
Because it's sappy. Original Version
- I told my friend I'm not really Canadian..
But he was having Nun-a-vut!
- When the Canadian went for his blood test, it came out EH-positive.

O Canada! 1980

Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts,
we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,
O Canada, we stand on guard
for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard
for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard
for thee.

Oh Canada lyrics have been changed and rewritten 3 times since 1980.

From the Chaplain

Does Jesus care?

This question can come up in times of distress when it seems our prayers don't go very far. It's a question Mary and Martha likely asked as they waited for Jesus to come heal their brother (John 11). By the time Jesus came, though, Lazarus was in the grave. Mary and Martha both said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." That almost sounds like an accusation, like they're saying, "Where were you—don't you care?" Jesus did care. He was "deeply moved in spirit and troubled" and he wept. Though his arrival seemed too late, Jesus knew what he was doing. It was through the miracle of Lazarus being raised from the dead that many came to faith in Christ.

Pastor Frank Graeff, also known as the Sunshine Minister for his optimistic attitude and sunny disposition, responds this way:

Does Jesus care when my heart is pained
Too deeply for mirth or song,
As the burdens press, and the cares distress,
And the way grows weary and long?
Oh, yes, He cares, I know He cares,
His heart is touched with my grief;
When the days are weary, the long nights dreary,
I know my Savior cares.

As we face both joys and sorrows in life, and as we may even go on with questions unanswered, let's continue to hold on to the one who does care deeply for us.

Peter Berg, Chaplain
