Silver bells, silver bells
It's Christmas time in the city
Ring-a-ling, Hear them ring
Soon it will be Christmas day... but until then, we have a lot to do!
The lights are up and the trees are lit as we enter into the solemn splendor of the season.

There's Christmas shopping to Walmart on December 5th and 13th, in the afternoon. Put your name in with Sam or Leanne in Recreation, as seating is limited and spots fill up fast.

We are blessed to have numerous groups coming in to sing with us throughout the month, as well as Christmas baking, so it's going to look, feel, sound and smell like Christmas!

Pictures with Santa are taking place on Friday, December 13, 9-12:00 in our atrium, and he is returning to visit on December 19th to go to the homes to make sure everyone has a visit.

Christmas lights tours around Steinbach.

We've booked the bus and we're ready to roll! Cruising over three nights, December 17th, 18th & 19th, we will be riding around our beautiful city, checking out the Christmas lights, singing Christmas carols at the top of our lungs. It's a non-stop tour from 5:45 - 7pm. Seating is also limited, so get your name in early to the Recreation Dept.

On Christmas Eve, December 24th, we will have a Candlelit Service in our chapel, starting at 10:30 am. Please join us for songs, poems and Scripture readings to commemorate the season.

So as the busyness of this month begins, take a moment to enjoy a cup of coffee, share a story or just take a moment to enjoy the beauty of the season.

Let's make this a December to remember, as we usher in 2025.

On behalf of all of us at Rest Haven Care Home, we want to wish you a very Merry Christmas and a safe and healthy New Year.

Christmas and memories—how can we separate them?

As Christmas approaches, we recall memories of children, of friends, of family, and of loved ones.

As Christmas approaches, we recall memories of hugs, of laughter, of visits, and of things done together.

As Christmas approaches, we recall memories of caroling, of concerts, of gifts, and of Christmas baking.

As Christmas approaches, we recall the reason behind it all, the birth of Jesus Christ.

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.” Luke 2:11, 12

Among the memories of this past year are memories of loved ones no longer with us, loved ones that we miss. The room seems quiet where their voice was once heard, and the table seems empty where they once sat. Christmas isn't the same without them.

This month we want to honor the memory of some Rest Haven residents who recently passed away. We would like to extend condolences to the families of Minnie Reimer and of Sadie Poetker.

As we approach the end of another year, we'd like to honor the memories of all those who passed away this year, through a special end-of-year memorial we've entitled The Tree of Angels Memorial, planned for December 11 at 6:30. All are invited, especially family and friends of those who have passed away.

May God bless you this Christmas season!

Peter Berg, Chaplain
