Lord

Help us to reflect on the freedom and privileges
we have because of the sacrifices made by others.
Thank-you for their courage.

“Remembrance Day
is when the country stops..
for two minutes of silence to pay respect to those who gave their lives, and for our veterans who fought for our freedom.”

—Douglas Phillips, Canadian writer

Chaplain's Notes

How does God comfort us?

A good question to ask in this time around Remembrance Day or in any time of difficulty or loss.

When Jesus met up with a funeral procession on the outskirts of Nain, He found a widow grieving the loss of her only son (Luke 7:11).

How did He respond?

By intervening in the miraculous way of raising her son back to life! Does God always comfort in this way, by solving all the problems we encounter? This is what we may like, but God doesn't always do it that way. Even the apostle Paul was disappointed when God didn't heal him the way he asked. God did provide strength, though, as he said, "...

My grace is sufficient for thee...

my strength is made perfect in weakness..." (II Corinthians 12:9).

How can strength be made perfect in weakness?

Doing things in our own strength can make us feel self-sufficient, like the child who asserts, "I can do it myself!" Times of weakness, though, force us to look elsewhere for strength, which can motivate us to seek the Lord. Jesus does encourage us to trust and not to be afraid (John 14).

So why did Jesus comfort the widow of Nain the way He did?

This special miracle served as a sign to show who He was –God's only Son. Though God does miracles today, we don't see them as often as in the early church.

But what God does give is grace and strength for each moment, which are also signs that can encourage others as they observe us continuing on despite the challenges of life.

May God grant you the strength to continue on, no matter what you're facing today.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That marks our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead, short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch, be yours to hold it high
If ye break the faith with us who die

WE shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders Fields.

John McCreary 1915
