And now these three remain: faith, hope and love.
But the greatest of these is LOVE. 1 Corinthians 13:13

TIGLE YOUR FUNNY BONE!

What did the closet say to the light bulb?
"You light up my world."

What did the two volcanos say to each other on valentine's day?
Do you lava me like I lava you!!

Where did the man who promised his girlfriend a diamond take her on Valentine's day?
A baseball field.

Remember:

February is Heart & Stroke Month -

a simple and effective way to help you recognize and remember the most common signs of stroke and know to take action right away:

- Face - is it drooping?
- Arms - can you raise both?
- Speech - Is it slurred or jumbled?
- Time to call: 9-1-1 right away.

Happy Birthday!

7 Benefits of Having a Large Family

by Phil Callaway. (paraphrased)

1. The milk in the fridge never gets old.
 2. No more banging your head getting into small cars.
 3. The kids are never bored - on each others nerves but never bored.
 4. Parents get to use all the names in the Old Testament.
 5. Group discounts on just about everything.
 6. Nothing gets wasted, clothes, shoes, hats, bikes etc.
 7. No more bullies...no one dares....that's family.
- Of course not everyone sees this as a blessing...*

Comments from the public:

- Are these all yours?
- Rather you than me.
- Many more...

and then there is this one:

you may find there is one you really like...

Genesis 1:28

God blesses humans and tells them to

"be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it".

Be Blessed!

From the Chaplain

“Who touched me?” The question hung in the air as people looked around to see what was going on. When no one spoke up, Peter pointed out the crowds pressing in on Jesus—anyone could have touched Him (Luke 8:45)

. It was no ordinary touch, though, and Jesus had noticed it. It was an intentional touch; it was a faith-filled touch of someone looking for help. Jesus felt healing power go out from him and now he looked around to see who had received it.

Who had touched him? It was a woman desperate for a miracle.

A woman who hoped to just come close, brush the edge of his garment, and slip away. Her plan had worked—almost. She was healed but she was not unnoticed. She didn’t want to talk about her situation but now she had to, so she fell down at Jesus’ feet and poured it all out—she told him everything.

How did Jesus respond? Did he condemn?

No—he understood and accepted her.

Jesus could have left the situation alone but I wonder if he wanted her story told so others could be helped.

Someone else might be encouraged through her testimony.

Someone else might be drawn to the Lord through what she shared.

It is comforting to know we can bring everything to the Lord, no matter how personal it is. We don’t need to be afraid to bring things out because God understands. Even as the prodigal son was eagerly welcomed by a waiting father (Luke 14:20), our Heavenly Father does the same!

May God bless you as you seek the Lord and perhaps share your story with someone today.
