From the Chaplain

“..as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup..”

I Corinthians 11:26

These familiar words remind us of communion and of what Jesus did for us

—He died so we could live.

A difficult concept to understand until one recognizes redemption for what it is —one taking the place of another. When God called Moses to lead the Children of Israel to the Promised Land, he also instituted the Passover.

The lambs that died in place of the Hebrew first-born were a picture, or a foreshadowing, of the death Jesus would die in our place.

When Jesus shared that final Passover with the disciples, he shifted its focus away from remembering the redemption God provided for the Israelites in Egypt to remembering the redemption God provided for all mankind through the death of his own Son on a cross.

“And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.”

I Corinthians 11:24

As we take part in communion this month, we want to again thank God for the salvation he provided for us through Jesus.

Peter Berg, Chaplain
