“This morning, the sun endures past dawn.
I realize that it is August: the summer’s last stand.”
-Sarah Baume

Tickle Your Funny Bone!

*I don't trust stairs.
They're always up to something
Someone's father has four kids:
North, West, South and one other.
What is the fourth child's name?
*Someone!
What did one plate say to the other plate?
Dinner's on me.*

Civic Holiday History:

*dating back to the mid 1850s
when various cities in Upper Canada (now Ontario)
began to have a public holiday in August.
The date of the holiday varied year by year and
was proclaimed by the mayor.
Shops were closed
and the day was spent with picnics and railway and steamer excursions.
The idea spread quickly,
even into neighbouring Manitoba;
Winnipeg had its first public holiday in 1874.
The civic holiday eventually solidified on the first Monday of August.
The province marked the first Terry Fox Day on 3 August 2015,
making Manitoba the first province to name a day in Fox's honour.*

From the Chaplain

"Loose him and let him go".

*It was such an impossible feat, yet the call of Jesus was enough to raise Lazarus back to life (John 11). How did Lazarus feel when he woke up and found himself bound in a tomb? He had heard the call of Jesus and had made his way out to the light. As his friends pulled the grave cloths off of him, Lazarus saw their apprehension turn to joy at seeing him alive again.
In John 8:36 Jesus proclaimed, "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." Jesus spoke about spiritual freedom, of being loosed from bondage. Picture a tired hiker, straining under the weight of a heavy pack, waiting for someone to remove the load. Though Jesus offers to take our burdens from us, he waits for our word before he does that.
He does his freeing work as we bring our burdens to him.*

In Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus promised rest for those who take his yoke upon them. Even as a yoke enables two oxen to pull a load together, making the burden less for each, Jesus comes alongside us and helps us carry the weight of our burdens. While our tendency may be to ignore problems and Jesus helps us to work through our problems and thereby just hope they will go away, gain freedom.

*It was Judson Van DeVenter who penned the words,
All to Jesus I surrender, all to Him I freely give;
I will ever love and trust Him, in His presence daily live.
I surrender all, I surrender all;
All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.*

Let's continue to trust the one who knows us completely and is well able to do His freeing work in us!
